

Society of Radiology Physician Extenders Bylaws

CHAPTER I

The name of this Society shall be the Society of Radiology Physician Extenders, hereinafter referred to as the Society.

CHAPTER II

GOVERNING BODY

The Board of Directors shall be the governing body, hereinafter referred to as the Board.

CHAPTER III

PURPOSE AND FUNCTIONS

SECTION 1: Purposes:

The purpose of this Society shall be to advance the profession of mid-level radiology, to assist in maintaining high standards of education and training, to elevate the quality of patient care, and to improve the public awareness of advanced radiology professionals through federal and state advocacy. These purposes shall not be restricted by any consideration of nationality, race, color, gender, sexual orientation, disability, religion, or creed.

SECTION 2: Functions:

(a) Conduct meetings to transact Society business, to present scientific papers, to carry on educational activities, to discuss professional issues, and to encourage similar programs among organizations affiliated with the Society.

- (b) Publish and communicate information pertinent to the conduct of the Society or the profession.
- (c) Assist in establishing and communicating high standards of education and training, and to implement them through appropriate channels.
- (d) Stimulate and encourage research designed to provide the knowledge needed to assure increasingly efficient patient care.
- (e) Expand educational opportunities for the advanced radiology profession.
- (f) Communicate policies concerning the professional status, activities, and the welfare of its members.
- (g) Cooperate with external organizations or agencies to maintain continued progress and growth of the Society.
- (h) Represent the Registered Radiologist Assistant (RRA) and the Radiology Practitioner Assistant (RPA) on all issues pertaining to professional recognition, licensure, and professional growth.

CHAPTER IV

POLICIES

SECTION 1:

This Society shall be nonsectarian, and nonpartisan. No candidate for public office shall be endorsed by the Society. Neither the name of the Society nor any of its officers in their official capacities shall be used in connection with any partisan interest other than regular functions of the Society.

SECTION 2:

A member who is without qualifications entitling him/her to practice as a physician or surgeon, shall not accept patients for diagnostic or therapeutic procedures except under supervision.

CHAPTER V

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1:

The membership of this Society shall consist of Active, Associate, Student, and Life members. All candidates for membership shall submit a properly completed application with any required fees and shall furnish any additional information as may be required.

SECTION 2:

Active membership hereinafter designated as “members” shall be those radiologic technologists who fulfill qualifications established by members of the Society and are members in good standing with the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT). Active members shall hold credentials from the Certification Board for Radiology Practitioner Assistants (CBRPA) as a RPA or the ARRT as a RRA. Active members may hold office, be appointed to positions by the Board, and serve on committees. This is a voting membership.

SECTION 3:

Associate members shall be those persons actively practicing in the imaging sciences or educators in the field of imaging science who do not hold credentials from the CBRPA as a RPA or from the ARRT as a RRA. They shall have privileges and obligations as members but may not hold an office in the Society. This is a non-voting membership.

SECTION 4:

Student members shall be those persons in good standing in an educational program for RPAs or RRAs. They shall have privileges and obligations as members but may not hold an office in the Society. A reduced fee membership will be available to Student members which expires August of the year they graduate. Proof of program enrollment may be requested by Society representatives to qualify candidate for membership. This is a non-voting membership.

SECTION 5:

Life membership is granted to those persons who have provided exemplary and outstanding service to the Society and profession. Life membership status will be bestowed by Board recommendation and majority vote of the members at the annual meeting. Life members are not required to pay annual membership dues. This is a voting membership.

SECTION 6:

No member who is in arrears for dues shall vote or hold office or shall be entitled to receive reports of the transactions of the Society. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to erase from the rolls of the membership the name of any person who is in arrears for more than ninety (90) days. Any member dropped from the rolls for nonpayment of dues may be reinstated only upon applying for reinstatement and a reinstatement fee, not to exceed an amount equivalent to the annual dues.

SECTION 7:

Any member may resign from membership in the Society by making application to the Secretary. Any member who has resigned in good standing may be reinstated after paying the reinstatement fee and the dues for the year in which he/she is reinstated.

SECTION 8:

Charges seeking disciplinary action against an individual in any category shall be submitted in writing, by at least two members, to the Board, who will investigate the charges. If in their judgment, the charges are sufficient, the individual shall be advised of the charges, and shall have the right to submit a written defense, or appear either in person or by means of an authorized representative before a meeting of the Board of which he has been notified at least twenty (20) days in advance.

If, in the majority opinion of the Board, a satisfactory defense has not been made, the Board shall have the right to discipline the member. The disciplinary action may range from censure or sanction to expulsion from the Society. Expulsion from the Society will require a unanimous vote of the Board. The Board will render a final decision within ninety (90) days of receiving the charges. The Board has the authority to forward the individuals name and reason for disciplinary action to the Board of the CBRPA and/or the ARRT, dependent on the situation.

CHAPTER VI
